

Number of days spent by the Examiner in visiting and inspecting schools and school houses, 1.

Remarks:—"The School Committees of the Townships have failed to make any report to the Commissioners."

(Signed)

J. D. GRIMSLEY,
County School Examiner.

Snow Hill, N. C., October 12, 1870.

Oct. 24, Examiner writes: Our Public Schools are in operation to-day—two white and two colored, and as soon as teachers can be procured, four others will be commenced.

GUILFORD COUNTY.

NEREUS MENDENHALL, Examiner, Jamestown. Whole number of schools in the county, 8; white 4, colored 4.

In July, 1870, the number of children attending the Public Schools of the county was reported to be 800; white 300; colored 500.

Number of Public Schools continued longer than four months, 1.

Number of localities in which examinations were held during the year, 4.

Number of applicants for certificates, 17; men, white 9, colored 0; women, white 8, colored 0. All approved.

Number of applicants for certificates who are under twenty years of age, probably, 8 or 9.

Examinations were sometimes oral and sometimes on the black-board.

Number of days spent by Examiner in visiting and inspecting schools and school houses, about 16.

A normal school was held at Springfield during the month of June.

(Signed)

NEREUS MENDENHALL,
County School Examiner.

Guilford County, N. C., 9th month, 2, 1870.